Family Emergency Preparedness Kit

EM 8864-E • August 2004

There are six basics you should stock for your home: water, food, first-aid supplies, clothing and bedding, tools and emergency supplies, and special items.

Items you would most likely need during an emergency are marked with an asterisk (*). Store them in an easy-to-carry container such as a large, covered trash can, a camping backpack, or a duffle bag. Keep your kit in a convenient place known to all family members; keep a smaller version of the kit in the trunk of your car.

Water

- Store water in plastic containers such as soft drink bottles. Avoid using containers that will decompose or break (e.g., milk cartons or glass bottles). A normally active person needs to drink at least 2 quarts of water each day. Hot environments and intense physical activity can double that amount. Children, nursing mothers, and ill people will need more.
- Store 1 gallon of water per person per day.
- Keep at least a 3-day supply of water per person (2 quarts for drinking, 2 quarts for each person for food preparation/sanitation).*

Food

Store at least a 3-day supply of non perishable food. Select foods that require no refrigeration, preparation or cooking, and little or no water. If you must heat food, include a can of portable cooking fuel such as Sterno. Select items that are compact and lightweight:

- Ready-to-eat canned meats, fruits, vegetables
- Canned juices
- Staples (salt, sugar, pepper, spices, etc.)
- High-energy foods
- Vitamins
- Food for infants (see page 2)
- Comfort/stress foods
