In addition to the above there are over 300 correspondents in the State, who, during the growing season, from March 15th to October 1st of each year, report weekly by mail to the central office the general condition of the crop, the effect of the weather upon the same and the general prospects; these reports are, as noted before, compiled and issued in the form of weekly bulletins.

The first eight persons named under the list of Weather Bureau employees are commissioned by the Honorable Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D. C. They hold office (their place of residence may be changed at any time) by virtue of competency and good behavior. Admittance to the Bureau is through a civil service examination in Meteorology, Physics, Composition, Mathematics, History, Grammar, Orthography, and minor branches. The river observers are appointed on the recommendation of the Forecast Official at Portland, Or., by the Chief of the Weather Bureau, Washington, D. C. They hold office during their prompt and efficient service. The voluntary observers are appointed as such on the recommendation of the Director of the Oregon State Weather Service by the Secretary of State.

Electoral Vote, Cleveland over Harrison and Weaver..... 110
 Total Popular Vote, 1892, including Scattering 12,110,636

The total Democratic popular vote in 1888 was 5,538,233; in 1892 it was 5,556,918, an increase of 18,685 from 1888 to 1892. The total Republican vote in 1888 was 5,440,216; in 1892 it was 5,176,108, a decrease of 264,108 from 1888 to 1892.

In the States of Colorado, Idaho, Kansas, North Dakota and Wyoming the Democrats ran no electoral tickets, and voted for the Populist electoral tickets for the purpose of taking those States from the Republicans. With a few exceptions they also voted for the Populist electors in Nevada. In Louisiana the Republican party and Populists united their vote, each nominating half of the eight candidates for electors, and in the table their aggregate popular vote is divided.

In five States the electoral vote was divided; in California and Ohio because the vote for the Cleveland and Harrison electors was so close; in Michigan because by act of Legislature each Congressional district voted separately for an elector; in Oregon because one of the four candidates for electors on the Populist ticket was also on the Democratic ticket, the result being three Republicans and one Populist elected; in North Dakota because one of the two Populist electors who were elected cast his vote for Cleveland, this causing the electoral vote of the State to be equally divided between Cleveland, Harrison and Weaver.

*Harrison over Fusion vote, 14,182.

†In Oregon the highest vote for an elector was that cast for the one candidate Pierce who was on both the Democratic and Populist tickets. He received 35,813 votes. The next highest vote was for a Republican candidate for elector, 35,002. This gave the Fusion candidate (who afterward voted for Weaver) a plurality of 811, and it so appears in the column of pluralities above.

NEW GAME LAW OF OREGON.

EDITOR'S NOTE. Although it was seemingly intended to cover all points in the new game law, yet it was not done; for instance, the selling season for trout, geese, ducks and other game is not covered in the new law, and the question now is, whether or not this is not now controlled by the provisions of the old 1893 law. Perhaps an opinion rendered by the Attorney General in the near future will more fully enlighten sportsmen.

AN ACT

For the protection of game, fish and wild fowl of the State of Oregon, and to provide for the appointment of a Fish and Game Warden.

Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon:

SECTION 1. Every person who shall, within the State of Oregon, at any time between the first day of December of each year and the first day of August of the following year hunt, pursue, take, kill, or destroy any elk, moose, or mountain sheep, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Every person who shall at any time take, kill, injure or destroy or pursue with intent to take, kill, injure or destroy, any moose, elk, mountain sheep, or deer for the purpose of obtaining the skin, hide, ham or hams of such animals, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. Every person who shall sell, or offer for sale, barter or exchange, and every person or the agents, officers employed or operatives of any corporation, who shall buy, or offer to buy, or transport, or carry for the purpose of barter, or sale, or exchange, the skin or hide of any moose, elk, deer, or mountain sheep (except when it is lawful to kill the same) shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and every person who shall sell, or offer for sale, or buy, or offer to buy, or have in his possession or custody, or under his control, any elk, deer, moose, or mountain

That in all cases justice courts shall have jurisdiction of the offenses defined in this act.

SEC. 32. There shall be chosen bi-ennially by the Legislative Assembly of Oregon a competent person who shall be denominated "Fish and Game Protector," whose term of office shall continue two years and until his successor is chosen and qualified.

SEC. 33. Before entering upon his duties, he shall file with the Secretary of State a bond with two or more sufficient sureties in the sum of one thousand ($1,000) dollars, conditioned that he will faithfully discharge his duties as prescribed in this Act.

SEC. 34. The Fish and Game Protector shall give his time and attention to the duties of said office, and his powers and duties shall be as hereinafter in this Act defined. His compensation shall be two thousand ($2,000) dollars per year, to be paid in monthly installments, and he shall be allowed his actual traveling and other necessary expenses in the performance of his duties, not exceeding five hundred ($500) dollars per year.

SEC. 35. It shall be the duty of the Fish and Game Protector, under the direction of the Governor, to enforce the laws of the State and the provisions supplementary thereto made by any County Court or other proper authority, for the protection of game, fish and song birds; and for this purpose he shall visit suspected places and gather such information as may be in his power relative to infractions of such laws committed by any person. He shall also have authority to inspect all cold storage rooms, packages or boxes held either for storage or shipment which he has reason to believe contain evidences of the infraction of any of the laws of this state for the protection of game, fish and song birds; and if upon diligent inquiry he can discover evidence sufficient in his judgment to secure conviction of the alleged offenders, or shall have cause to believe that sufficient evidence exists to justify the same, he shall at once institute proceedings to punish the said alleged offenders.

SEC. 36. Such actions or proceedings shall be commenced on the order of the Fish and Game Protector in the name of the State of Oregon, by the District Attorney in the district in which the offense shall be alleged to have been committed; and such actions shall be prosecuted to determination in the county where they shall be commenced unless for good cause appearing a discontinuance shall be directed by the Fish and Game Protector, but in no case where such discontinuance shall be directed shall any costs be charged or chargeable to the prosecution.

SEC. 37. It is hereby made the duty of every Sheriff, Deputy Sheriff and Constable within the State of Oregon to enforce all laws for the protection of game, fish and song birds within their respective counties. In the performance of such duties they shall be subject to the direction and control of the Fish and Game Protector, and they shall receive no other compensation than that provided by law for such services as such officer, except as herein in this act provided.

SEC. 38. All moneys recovered and all fines collected under this Act shall be paid to the Treasurer of the county in which the suits, actions or proceedings shall have been commenced; and the District Attorney or Treasurer of said county upon the payment of any judgment may satisfy the same of record as the attorney for the State. One-half of all moneys thus paid into any county treasury over and above the amount necessary to reimburse the county for any expenses paid out by the County Treasurer under this Act, shall be paid on or before the thirteenth day of September in each year into the State Treasury and become and be part of the general fund; and the remaining one-half of all such moneys over and above the amount necessary to reimburse the county for any outlay for expenses paid out by the County Treasurer under this Act, shall be paid to and belong to the informer, whether said informer be the Sheriff, Deputy Sheriff, Constable or other person who causes to be brought the action or proceeding in which such fine or penalty shall be recovered, and shall be paid to him by the County Treasurer within thirty days after the same shall be received by him upon the certificate of the District Attorney that such action or proceeding was brought or caused to be brought by such person.

SEC. 39. Said Fish and Game Protector and any Sheriff, Deputy Sheriff or Constable may without warrant, arrest any person violating any of the statutes now or hereafter enacted or in force at the time for the protection of game, fish and song birds, or any of them, and take such persons before a Justice of the peace, or Police Judge or other magistrate having jurisdiction, who shall proceed without delay to hear, try and determine the matter, and give and enter judgment according to the allegations and proofs.

SEC. 40. The Fish and Game Protector shall annually on the first day of December make a report to the Governor of the operation of his department during the preceding year.

SEC. 41. All expenses incurred under the provisions of this Act shall be audited by the Secretary of State upon bills being presented properly certified, and the said Secretary of State shall from time to time draw warrants upon the State Treasurer for the amounts.

SEC. 42. That all other laws for the protection of game and fish in the State of Oregon in conflict with this Act are hereby repealed; and as there is urgent need for such protection, the same shall take effect and be in force from and after its approval by the Governor.

WILLIS S. DUNIWAY,

PRIVATE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNOR.

Born in Clackamas county, Oregon, in 1856, and raised in Yamhill, Linn, and Multnomah. Received education in public schools and Albany College. Industrious and studious, took the Portland high school four year course in two and one-half years. Learning printer's trade, became rapid compositor and careful proofreader. In '80s was managing editor of the New Northwest, and greatly aided his mother, Mrs. A. S. Duniway, in giving it standing as a reform paper. His health failing, went to Idaho in 1886, and engaged in stockraising for several years, and yet owns a cattle ranch in Custer county. There read law and was admitted to the bar, but has not practiced. Has always taken interest in athletics, and is member of P. A. A. C. Also is interested in labor questions, and is very conservative member of Multnomah Typographical Union. A student of general economic and political matters, he grew up a staunch Republican, and is now an active member of the Multorpor Club. In 1894 Mr. Duniway was one of seven candidates for the nomination of State Printer at his party's hands. It was the hardest contest of the convention, and "geography" decided it. When Mr. Leeds, of Southern Oregon, was finally nominated, Mr. Duniway, his chief competitor, was loudly called for. Of his short address on that occasion The Oregonian said editorially: "It is admitted on all sides that nothing better was said before the Republican convention than the speech of Willis S. Duniway. It showed that he has stuff in him, and it establishes his place among the younger and coming men." Governor Lord, on taking the executive chair, selected him for Private Secretary, and he now fills the position. The Portland Evening Telegram said of the appointment: "Governor Lord has equipped himself with an exceptionally qualified lieutenant, and satisfied every element of his party. Mr. Duniway is admirably fitted by education for the place, and his work in the last campaign proved him to be a young man of rare political ability and strength of partisan loyalty. His manly speech at the State convention, after his defeat for nomination for State Printer, won for him the admiration of all the rural delegates who had voted against him, and the favorable opinion he then established was enhanced by his energetic labor in behalf of the ticket until it was elected." Mr. Duniway has also been appointed Assistant Adjutant-General of the Oregon National Guard with the rank of Major.

WALTER SINCLAIR,

CHIEF CLERK OF THE SENATE.

Walter Sinclair, whose likeness is here given, was Senator from Coos county, representing that district at both the 16th and 17th bi-ennial sessions of the Legislature. Mr. Sinclair was one of our Nation's defenders from 1861—64, being an honored member of the G. A. R., Masonic and other orders. He is a gentleman to whose hands one would confidently and safely entrust his business, sound and practical upon all subjects pertaining to the public welfare, of wide experience and successful career, a staunch Republican. Recognizing his ability his friends elected the ex-Senator as Chief Clerk of the Senate in January 1895 and he performed the arduous duties with eminent satisfaction to all concerned.

RALPH E. MOODY,

CHIEF CLERK, HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

So long as the members and attaches of the Oregon House of Representatives of '95 live, none of them will ever forget Ralph E. Moody, the Chief Clerk, and his ringing voice. Moody was heard during the session much more than any one else in the hall of Representatives, and expressed the opinions and wishes of a great number of people on public affairs without caring particularly what those opinions and wishes were. He was the "vox populi," so to speak, and he did the voicing at so much per diem, and did it well. Unlike the voices of Chief and Reading Clerks generally, Moody's had some variations, modulations and intonations that were a relief. Even in calling the roll he could round off a name here and there with a melodious run that he should have copyrighted as an original bar of music. Something of the kind is a great help to listeners during the monotony of bill reading and roll calling for forty days. Mr. Moody is a gentleman par excellence, and shows his good breeding and high social attainments in his every day bearing at all times and under all circumstances. He comes from one of the best and oldest families; was born at The Dalles, Oregon, August 27, 1867, where he remained until 14 years of age, when he removed to Salem, attended Willamette University, and graduated from that institution in 1885 with degree of B. S. Then attended the Albany Law School at Albany, N. Y., from which he graduated in 1887, with the degree of L. L. B. After a long illness, he was engaged in the civil engineering department of the Oregon Railway & Navigation Company, on the Heppner branch. He went to Port Townsend, Wash., where he practiced law for one year. In November, 1889, he was elected District Attorney for Jefferson county, Wash., on the Republican ticket, serving his full time from 1890-92; during the same period he was attorney by appointment for San Juan and Island counties, Wash., and elected by the City Council of Port Townsend as City Attorney. Mr. Moody was nominated by acclamation to succeed himself as District Attorney, but in the '92 "change tidal wave" he was defeated, although he received a higher vote than any other Republican on the ticket. Mr. Moody returned to Oregon, locating at Portland, September, 1893, where he opened his law offices in the Waldo Building, corner Second and Washington streets, and at which place he may be found to this day. At the last session of the Legislature his friends urged him to accept the Chief Clerkship of the House of Representatives, and he received the largest vote in the Republican caucus, scoring 41 out of a possible 53 votes. Mr. Moody is too good-looking a man to have lived single long, and the consequence was that he became a happy benedict at the early age of 23; he was married to Miss Beatrice James, an English lady of Port Townsend, November 12, 1890, and is the proud father of a 3-year-old boy.

J. B. HUNTINGTON,

READING CLERK OF THE SENATE.

J. B. Huntington was born at Rockford, Winnebago county, Ill., in 1850, where he lived with his parents until 1864. Attended school at Mason, Michigan, until 1867 when he removed to Olympia, Washington Ter., where he was connected with the office of Superintendent of Indian Affairs, Gen. T. I. McKenney, Superintendent, most of the time for five years. During the time the Indian Department was under direction of the War Department he attended school at Forest Grove, returning again to Olympia to assume his old position when the Indian Department was again placed under control of civilians. In 1872 he removed to Eastern Washington where he engaged in the cattle business for eight years, during which time he was married at Yakima City to Miss Eloise Guillard of that place. In 1880 he purchased the ranch known to many a traveler as "Miller Station" near the mouth of Bnrnt River, Baker county, Oregon, to which place he removed in 1881 where in 1883 he founded the town of Huntington, now a place of importance as the junction of the O. R. & N. and O. S. L. Railways. In 1889 he was appointed Register of the U. S. Land office at Burns, Harney county, Or., which position he filled for five years, retiring in May, 1894, a year after the expiration of his term of office and at which place he now resides. Outside of professional men, few men have a more extensive acquaintance and scarcely any man has a larger circle of personal friends.

GEO. R. HUGHES,

READING CLERK, HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Geo. R. Hughes was born May 31, 1867, at Forest Grove, Washington county, Oregon; though he arrived on earth at that season of the year, still he "is no spring chicken," he is thoroughly informed on the ways of the world, and eminently capable of coping with its obstacles and allurements. George was raised at his birthplace, graduated from the public school and then attended Pacific University for several years. At the age of 21 Mr. Hughes entered the newspaper profession, having been connected with the Port Townsend Leader and other papers. Since 1891 he has been connected with the firm of S. Hughes & Son, dealers in hardware and agricultural implements at Forest Grove. In the contest for Reading Clerk of the Lower House at the 18th session of the Legislature he received the majority of the votes of his party and served through the entire session with credit to himself and honor to the friends who elected him. Mr. Hughes made many friends during the last session.

ALVAH W. PATTERSON,

OF HEPPNER, OREGON.

The subject of this sketch, though of Virginia parentage, is a native "Hoosier," having been born in Hendricks county, Indiana, January 17, 1870. His boyhood days, until 15 years of age, were spent between school-room and farm, after which he entered the Central Normal College at Danville, Indiana, where he spent the greater portion of several years afterward in securing a scientific and commercial education. At the age of 18 he was selected as an instructor in the schools of his county, and met with such success that he was retained for the two following terms, spending the summer months in school. In the early spring of '91, acting upon the advice of friends, Mr. Patterson came to this coast, locating at Heppner, where he joined his brothers, Otis and Orin L., in the publication of the Heppner Gazette and Long Creek Eagle, under the firm name of the Patterson Publishing Company, he being selected as manager of the Gazette, which since that date has grown from a weekly to a semi-weekly publication. Although comparatively a young man, yet Mr. Patterson's ability as an orator and public speaker is well known throughout the State. His first effort in this line worthy of note was during his last term as instructor in the public schools, when he was selected to represent one of three districts in a teachers' oratorical district, and although his opponents were much older gentlemen than himself, yet he came out victorious. Since locating at Heppner he has appeared in public so often on Fourth of July and Decoration Day occasions that all in that section are familiar with his ability in this line. Representatives to the Grand Lodge, K. of P., which met in Heppner in October, '93, will all remember his grave and eloquent address on that occasion as printed in the Oregon Knight, which brought forth many complimentary comments from Pythian journals in many States, and also at the Republican State Convention, held in Portland last April, all present will remember his forcible and logical nominating speech in presenting the name of W. R. Ellis for Congressman. Mr. Patterson has for a number of years past taken an active part in politics and great interest in club organization. Even before coming to this State he began work in the line which he continued since locating at Heppner. Last year he assisted largely in the best club organization Morrow county ever had. He was also selected as President of the Morrow County Republican Club, the largest in the county, and later elected Alternate Delegate by the State League to the National League meeting in Denver. At the county Republican Convention, of which Mr. Patterson was chairman, he was chosen as a delegate to the State Convention by the largest vote given, and was afterwards chosen Chairman of the Republican Central Committee, which position he filled very acceptably, making a canvas of the county with the party nominees. At the recent session of the Legislature, though not a member, he was associated with those opposed to the re-election of Senator Dolph, and at the monster street demonstration following the failure of Mr. Dolph to secure a majority on the first ballot, Mr. Patterson acted as moderator, introducing each speaker in an appropriate manner, which each time created much enthusiasm. Some one writing lately of a very charming woman of society, said she had the head of one of Titian's saints and the soul of one of Maupassant's sinners. Alvah Patterson, of Heppner, is neither a saint nor a sinner, but the individual, or collection of individuals, that take his theological-student look and quiet, almost gentle demeanor for the tabernacle of a lamb of innocence, are decidedly distant from the exact facts in the premises. Patterson is a great-hearted, honorable young man, with all that this implies. He is a wide-awake business citizen, acute in the ways of the world, but generous, charitable and jolly withal. His nature is more like that of a deep, strong stream than that of one man out of a thousand. He doesn't carry his heart on his sleeve for daws to peck at, nor does his good humor manifest itself in ebullitions of speech, gesticulation or laughter.

GEORGE C. SEARS,

SHERIFF OF MULTNOMAH COUNTY.

The present efficient Sheriff of Multnomah county, is a man who stands high among his constituents and is the fortunate possessor of a host of warm personal friends, who in their admiration of his numerous sterling qualities would make almost any sacrifice to enhance his success. He was born within the rock-bound borders of the Granite State, Vermont, near Richford, in the year 1842. His father, Hon. Alden Sears, was a prominent man in the political and trade circles of Northern Vermont. He emigrated with his family to California in 1850. George struck out for himself at an early age, clerking in various stores in Columbia, California, until he was about seventeen years of age, when he accumulated his savings and with them paid his college expenses during a four-years' course at Oakland. At the breaking out of the civil war in 1861 Mr. Sears enlisted and served until the close of the war and was mustered out of service with the rank of First Lieutenant. He afterwards engaged in the mercantile business in Contra Costa county, California, under the firm name of Penneman & Sears, where they transacted a heavy business for several years. He disposed of his interest in that business and moved to Santa Cruz, where he erected a saw-mill and conducted the same for a few years, when he sold out and engaged in the cattle business, which he carried on extensively. Owing to a heavy and long-continued drouth he disposed of his stock and came to Oregon and located in Portland, purchasing a half-interest in C. M. Martin's grocery establishment, in which business he continued about two years. He then bought the Dexter Livery Stable and continued in that business until he was elected Assessor in 1878. In this position he gained many warm friends and made some bitter enemies, owing to his unswerving fairness in assessing property, which duty he performed without fear or favor, with an honesty of purpose that gained him hosts of enthusiastic admirers. As a recognition of his services he was unanimously renominated and was re-elected by the largest majority any candidate ever received prior to that date in Multnomah county, leading his ticket by several hundred votes. In 1882 he was elected Sheriff of that county by nearly one thousand majority, the largest by far that any candidate for Sheriff had ever received in that county. At the time of the last Indian war in Eastern Oregon when the call was made for volunteers, Mr. Sears enlisted a company of 100 men and was chosen Captain. Governor Chadwick accepted his company and ordered them to the field, but owing to the U. S. government being unable to furnish arms for the men they could not be used, but they certainly deserve the same credit that they would had they gone, as they showed themselves ready and willing to help the people in their distress. Out of office in 1885 he went into the stock business in Eastern Oregon, in which business he is still engaged, his son being in charge. Mr. Sears was elected again in 1890 as Assessor of Multnomah county on the Republican ticket, and again in 1892 as an Independent candidate. In 1894 he was again elected Sheriff of Multnomah county as an Independent candidate by 1530 majority, and is holding this office to-day. Mr. Sears was instrumental in having the present assessment laws passed; these laws provide for collecting all county taxes in one place and at one time by one officer. Mr. Sears is a member of nearly all the secret orders, and has held high office in all of them; he belongs to the Elks, Knights of Pythias, Masons, Odd Fellows, Rebekahs, Red Men, G. A. R., A. O. U. W., Woodmen, Loyal Legion, Sons of American Revolution, United Artisans, and was also prominently identified with the old Volunteer Fire Department. At present Mr. Sears is also director and treasurer of the Portland Amateur Athletic Club. As a politician he is a very strong man, an honorable and good manager; he is fine looking, of little more than ordinary height, well proportioned and has pleasant features. He was married in 1864 to Miss Jennie M. Aldrich of Oakland, Cal., their family consisting of three daughters and one son. With Sheriff Sear's well established personal popularity and the esteem in which he is held by his constituents who have full confidence in his official integrity and efficiency, it is difficult to form even a prophecy as to the probable brilliancy of his future career.

C. M. LOCKWOOD,

CHIEF CLERK SECRETARY OF STATE'S OFFICE.

The subject of this sketch is Mr. C. M. Lockwood, the Chief Clerk of the Secretary of State's office; Mr. Lockwood was born at The Dalles, Oregon, on June 27, 1870, and is therefore a thorough-bred Oregonian. He has lived at Salem and vicinity since 1876; for 13 years he was the successful manager of the Postal Telegraph Company's offices at the Capital City, and he is now the owner and manager of the Lockwood Messenger System. Mr. Lockwood has also been connected with the cycle trade for several years. When Hon. H. R. Kincaid took over the office of Secretary of State on January 14, 1895, he at once appointed Mr. Lockwood as his Chief Clerk, which he will no doubt fill admirably, being specially qualified for the work in his department. Mr. Lockwood is a nephew of the Secretary of State.

NATIONAL PLATFORM OF THE PROHIBITION PARTY.

ADOPTED AT CINCINNATI, OHIO, JUNE 30, 1892.

The prohibition party, in National Convention assembled, acknowledging Almighty God as the source of all true government and His law as the standard to which all human enactments must conform to secure the blessings of peace and prosperity, presents the following declaration of principles:

1. The liquor traffic is a foe to civilization, the arch enemy of popular government and a public nuisance. It is the citadel of the forces that corrupt politics, promote poverty and crime, degrade the Nation's home-life, thwart the will of the people and deliver our country into the hands of rapacious class interests. All laws that under the guise of regulation legalize and protect this traffic, or make the government share in its ill-gotten gains, are "vicious in principle and powerless as a remedy." We declare anew for the entire suppression of the manufacture, sale, importation, exportation and transportation of alcoholic liquors as a beverage by Federal and State legislation, and the full powers of the government should be exerted to secure this result. Any party that fails to recognize the dominant nature of this issue in American politics is undeserving of the support of the people.

2. No citizen should be denied the right to vote on account of sex, and equal labor should receive equal wages without regard to sex.

3. The money of the country should consist of gold, silver and paper, and should be issued by the general government only, and in sufficient quantities to meet the demands of business and give full opportunity for the employment of labor. To this end an increase in the volume of money is demanded, and no individual or corporation should be allowed to make any profit through its issue. It should be made a legal tender for the payment of all debts, public and private. Its volume should be fixed at a definite sum per capita, and made to increase with our increase in population.

4. Tariff should be levied only as a defense against foreign governments which levy tariff upon or bar out our products from their markets, revenue being incidental. The residue of means necessary to an economical administration of the government should be raised by levying a burden on what the people possess instead of what they consume.

5. Railroad, telegraph and other public corporations should be controlled by the government in the interest of the people, and no higher charges allowed than necessary to give fair interest on the capital actually invested.

6. Foreign immigration has become a burden upon industry, one of the factors in depressing wages and causing discontent; therefore our immigration laws should be revised and strictly enforced. The time of residence for naturalization should be extended, and no naturalized person should be allowed to vote until one year after he becomes a citizen.

7. Non-resident aliens should not be allowed to acquire land in this country, and we favor the limitation of individual and corporate ownership of land. All unearned grants of land to railroad companies or other corporations should be reclaimed.

8. Years of inaction and treachery on the part of the Republican and Democratic parties have resulted in the present reign of mob law, and we demand that every citizen be protected in the right of trial by constitutional tribunals.

9. All men should be protected by law in their right to one day's rest in seven.

10. Arbitration is the wisest and most economical and humane method of settling National differences.

11. Speculation in margins, the cornering of grain, money and products, and the formation of pools, trusts and combinations for the arbitrary advancement of prices should be suppressed.

12. We pledge that the Prohibition party if elected to power will ever grant just pensions to disabled veterans of the Union army and navy, their widows and orphans.

13. We stand unequivocally for the American public school, and opposed to any appropriation of public moneys for sectarian schools. We declare that only by united support of such common schools, taught in the English language, can we hope to become and remain a homogeneous and harmonious people.

14. We arraign the Republican and Democratic parties as false to the standards reared by their founders; as faithless to the principles of the illustrious leaders of the past to whom they do homage with the lips; as recreant to the "higher law," which is as inflexible in political affairs as in personal life; and as no longer embodying the aspirations of the American people or inviting the confidence of enlightened progressive patriotism. Their protest against the admission of "moral issues" into politics is a confession of their own moral degeneracy. The declaration of an eminent authority that municipal misrule is "the one conspicuous failure of American politics, follows as a natural consequence of such degeneracy, and is true alike of cities under Republican and Democratic control. Each accuses the other of extravagance in Congressional appropriations and both alike are guilty; each protests when out of power against the infraction of civil service laws, and each, when in power, violates those laws in letter and in spirit; each profess fealty to the interests of the toiling masses, but both covertly truckle to the money power in their administration of public affairs. Even the tariff issue, as represented in the Democratic Mills bill and the Republican McKinley bill, is no longer treated by them as an issue upon great and divergent principles of government, but is a mere catering to different sectional and class interests. The attempt in many States to wrest the Australian ballot system from its true purpose, and to so deform it as to render it extremely difficult for new parties to exercise the right of suffrage is an outrage upon popular government. The competition of both parties for the vote of the slums, and their assiduous courting of the liquor power and subserviency to the money power has resulted in placing those powers in the position of practical arbiters of the destinies of the Nation. We renew our protests against those perilous tendencies, and invite all citizens to join us in the upbuilding of a party that has shown in five National campaigns that it prefers temporary defeat to an abandonment of the claims of justice, sobriety, personal rights and the protection of American homes.

15. Recognizing and declaring that prohibition of the liquor traffic has become the dominant issue in all National politics, we invite to full party fellowship all those who, on this one dominant issue, are with us agreed, in the full belief that this party can and will remove sectional differences, promote National unity and insure the best welfare of our entire land.

16. Resolved, That we favor a liberal appropriation by the Federal government for the World's Columbian Exposition, but only on the condition that the sale of intoxicating drinks upon the exposition grounds is prohibited, and the exposition be kept closed on Sunday.
