Attached as supporting information are two files:

File 1 is an excel version of the data used in the analysis including primary data file names for each observation.

File 2 is a graph of all the major elements by observation to show variability.