

Student Affairs Assessment Council
 Lists compiled on June 17, 2010
Agenda for Next Year

Priority
1	2	3	Ideas for Next Year Agenda
Our Learning and Organizational Work
			Assessment 101 for new members
			Sharing the learning opportunities for learning with us all
			Sharing ideas about how we involve our departments in assessment—what has worked Sharing our assessment work with each other
			Next iteration of what a good assessment report looks like—reporting results, etc.
			Get rubric and outline aligned
			Organize a group to look at SV webinars
			Sharing our data in some more cohesive ways
			Consistent assessment language—still okay or need to broaden?
			How do we support our student groups in doing assessment? How do they know that students are learning?
			Survey management?
			New IRB compliance person come in and talk about specific issues/specific question/when is IRB necessary
Diversity Work
			Learning outcomes to measure for division
			Mapping curriculum
			Finish rubric on “diversity”, how to use, ideas that might work for various departments
			Finish rubric this summer
			What are the criteria for success with the rubric? How to go about setting this up in your unit
			Development of methods that might be used to measure various diversity pieces
			Figure out process/timeframe/prioritize what we will do around further development of the diversity work we have done
			Vet rubric by using and make sure we get feedback
Helping Others Learn/Share
			Do we want to bring someone in again?
			Assessment Summit maybe with Academic Success and Engagement
			Division showcase—a place where folks can bring in their good work to demo/show the campus
			Write a book—each do a chapter

Next Steps

1. Review and set priorities for next year agenda
2. Complete work on rubric
3. Further develop outcomes and curricular map