

Student Affairs Assessment Council

Lists compiled on June 17, 2010

Agenda for Next Year

Priority			Ideas for Next Year Agenda
1	2	3
Our Learning and Organizational Work
6	1	1	Assessment 101 for new members
1	2	0	Sharing the learning opportunities for learning with us all
5	1	0	Sharing ideas about how we involve our departments in assessment—what has worked
2	2	0	Sharing our assessment work with each other
2	2	2	Next iteration of what a good assessment report looks like—reporting results, etc.
4	0	1	Get rubric and outline aligned
2	4	1	Organize a group to look at SV webinars
2	2	0	Sharing our data in some more cohesive ways
4	2	1	Consistent assessment language—still okay or need to broaden?
1	3	3	How do we support our student groups in doing assessment? How do they know that students are learning?
1	4	0	Survey management?
6	2	0	New IRB compliance person come in and talk about specific issues/specific question/when is IRB necessary
Diversity Work
5	1	0	Learning outcomes to measure for division
4	3	1	Mapping curriculum
6	1	0	Finish rubric on “diversity”, how to use, ideas that might work for various departments
6	1	0	Finish rubric this summer
4	3	0	What are the criteria for success with the rubric? How to go about setting this up in your unit
2	4	1	Development of methods that might be used to measure various diversity pieces
2	2	2	Figure out process/timeframe/prioritize what we will do around further development of the diversity work we have done
3	2	1	Vet rubric by using and make sure we get feedback
Helping Others Learn/Share
5	(1?)	1	Do we want to bring someone in again?
2	1	2	Assessment Summit maybe with Academic Success and Engagement
4	0	2	Division showcase—a place where folks can bring in their good work to demo/show the campus
0	1	6	Write a book—each do a chapter

Next Steps

1. Review and set priorities for next year agenda
2. Complete work on rubric
3. Further develop outcomes and curricular map