

A mobile home can be a second home, near a recreation area. Costs may be less than a conventional structure.