The history of the Second Oregon Regiment will always remain unchanged. It is complete and finished. Every member has had pride in making our record what it is, and will always feel a deep gratification in having had part in the events of this memorable year. The following pages aim to give only a very concise statement. More complete histories may be written later. But, that every one may have in permanent form the outline of our history, this pamphlet is printed.

There are some things in our history that can not be expressed. The deep feeling of brotherhood that binds us is more sacred than words. Wherever we may meet in years to come, to have been in the Oregon Regiment together will be a bond of friendship. Nor can words tell the feeling, that we remember so well and with aching sorrow, that came when a comrade was slain by our side in battle or lay for months in fever to be overcome at last by that worst foe. When we stood with uncovered head by the grave's side in the far away Luzon, we turned away in silence for no words could express our sadness. Nor can history ever tell the test that comes to courage when men, led on by a sense of duty, face death. But all these things the soldier knows, and will never forget.

The Regiment separates.

We have tried to do our duty well. We have endeavored to honor our Country and our State and those whose sons we are.

WM. S. GILBERT,
Chaplain.

Col. O. Summers,
Commanding 2nd Oregon U. S. V.

Sir:—I desire to express to you in very strong terms my appreciation of the manner in which you and your regiment performed the very difficult and delicate duties of acting provost marshal and provost guard during the time immediately following the capitulation of Manila. It gives me much pride and pleasure on the eve of my departure to recall the way in which I have been supported by all of my troops, and the cheerful fortitude with which they have endured the hardships of the campaign.

Very respectfully,

WESLEY MERRITT,
Major General, U. S. A.

CAVITE ARSENAL, P. I., Sept. 30th, 1898.

Col. O. Summers,
Commanding 2nd Oregon, U. S. V.

(Extract)

What I particularly admired in the Oregon regiment is that they have always taken their medicine like men and have never shown any spirit of insubordination or lack of loyalty. Tell your Oregon men not to mind paper pellets. "Act well your part. There all the honor lies."

Very sincerely,

THOMAS M. ANDERSON,
Major General, U. S. V.

General Wheaton at Malabon, March 25th, was asked: "Where are your regulars?" Pointing to the Oregons, then advancing on the first entrenchment, he replied: "There are my regulars."

Again at Melinto, March 26th, the General said: "Orderly, overtake those Oregon greyhounds on the road to Polo and order them to Melinto; go mounted or you will never catch them."

PORTLAND, ORE., April 30, 1899.

SUMMERS, Manila,
Your regiment's splendid record stirs our pride, congratulated warmly.

BEEBE.

BALIUAG, May 4, 1899.

COLONEL SUMMERS,
Commanding Provisional Brigade, Maasin:
I congratulate and thank you and your command for the fine manner in which you succeeded in crossing the river under fire of the enemy and capturing their works and town.

LAWTON, Major-General, Volunteers.

SAN MIGUEL, May 15, 1899.

COLONEL SUMMERS:
General Commanding (Lawton) has repeated your reply to Corps Commander (Otis) with following remarks: "This was a brilliant engagement for which Col. Summers and his command deserves great credit." He wishes to congratulate you and your troops on the comparative casualties. You hold the record of the war.

EDWARDS, Adjutant-General.

PALACE, May 17, 1899.

GENERAL LAWTON,
San Isidro:
Congratulations for you and your troops.

OTIS.

HOT SPRINGS, Va., May 18, 1899.

OTIS, MANILA:
Convey to General Lawton and the gallant men of his command my congratulations upon the successful operations during the past month resulting in the capture this morning of San Isidro.

WILLIAM MCKINLEY.

The above will be read to the several organizations comprising this division at retreat on the day it is received.

By command of Major-Gen. Lawton.

CLARENCE R. EDWARDS, A. A. G.
CANDABA, May 23, 1899.

ADJUTANT-GENERAL,
Department of the Pacific and 8th Army Corps:

In view of the remarkably successful engagements of Maasin, Balac Bridge and San Isidro, participated in by the troops under Col. Summer’s immediate command, I recommend Col. Summers for promotion to the grade of Brigadier-General of volunteers, at least, I believe him entitled to the corresponding Brevet. I make this recommendation in advance instead of in my final report on account of his relief from this command and the probability of immediate return to the United States. My report will contain recommendations of other officers.

LAWTON, Major-General of Vols.

(Extract from Gen. Wheaton’s report.)

MALOLOS, P. I. March 31-99.

The gallant conduct of Col. Summers 2nd Oregon Volunteer Infantry on March 25th and 26th is worthy of the highest praise. He maneuvered his regiment with ability and did excellent service, inspiring his command, which fought with great courage and determination.

HEADQUARTERS 3rd BRIGADE, 1st DIVISION, 8th A. C.

MANILA, P. I. May 27, 1899.

COLONEL OWEN SUMMERS,
2nd Oregon Volunteer Infantry.

Sir:—Your regiment is about to leave for home to be mustered out of the service of the United States, and I now desire to convey to you my high appreciation of the distinguished services of yourself and of the 2nd Oregon Volunteer Infantry. The skill, ability, and courage with which you have fought your regiment is deserving the thanks of your countrymen; the bravery, determined courage, and gallant conduct of the officers and men of the 2nd Oregon Volunteer Infantry prove them worthy successors of the men who fought at Shiloh, at Gettysburg, and in the Wilderness. Their gallant conduct during the recent campaign in Luzon has reflected credit upon the State from which they came.

Very respectfully,

LLOYD WHEATON, Brigadier General, U. S. V.
IN THE FIELD

LAS PIEAS, P. I., June 12, 1899.

BREVET BRIG. GEN. OWEN SUMMERS,
2nd Oregon Volunteers.

Sir:—Your regiment having been relieved from my command for the purpose of proceeding to the United States for muster out gives me an opportunity of which I am glad to avail myself of expressing to you and to the officers and men of your regiment my high appreciation of their gallant and faithful services while they have been under my command.

While I am glad the regiment is to return to their homes, I regret to lose so many good soldiers. When your regiment came to my command, their reputation as brave and gallant soldiers had preceded them. Since you have been with me, our work has been constant, arduous and dangerous. I learned very soon to place implicit confidence in your energy, judgment and courage, and the gallantry and bravery of your officers and men. You have nobly earned the reputation of being among the best soldiers of the American Army. In saying farewell to the regiment, I wish you Godspeed and all the good fortune and prosperity that may and should come to you.

Sincerely and respectfully yours,

H. W. LAWTON,
Major General Volunteers.
