

"Let me show
you"

"I'll tell you"

4-H SHOW and TELL

(Introduction to Presentations for Younger 4-H Members)

- Choose a topic and title
  - Limit yourself to one idea
    - Plan what you'll do and say
      - Write down some notes
        - Practice

3 Steps to "Showing and Telling"

1. Introduction
Tell what you're going to do
Tell why you chose your topic
2. Body
Tell about and show how to make or do something step by step
3. Conclusion
Give a short summary
Ask if anybody has a question

Be sure:

- Everyone can see and hear
- To explain each step
- To tell how to do each step
- To tell why you do each step

CHECK YOURSELF

1. Were you neat, clean, and dressed for the job?
2. Did you speak clearly?
3. Did you stand up straight?
4. Did your introduction interest the audience?
5. Did you use your equipment easily?
6. Was your equipment well chosen?
7. If you used charts, were they neat?
Easy to read?
8. Did your audience understand what you did?
9. Did you know your facts? Don't be afraid to say,
"I don't know" if you can't answer a question.
10. Was everyone able to see?
11. Did you have fun?

Showing and telling about something can be fun. It can also be a valuable learning experience. Use the outline below to help you prepare.

INTRODUCTION: Get Audience Interest—Explain Your Topic

BODY: What I Will Do      Equipment I Will Need      What I Will Say
